

Los Angeles Sparks Community Spotlight

The community spotlight works to strengthen the Southern California community. The two time WNBA champions, the Los Angeles Sparks are "assisting" local non-profit organizations in raising awareness, funds and member involvement for their causes.

The Los Angeles Sparks will Spotlight

JWCH Institute

JWCH Institute is a non-profit health care agency originally established as the Attending Staff Association of the John Wesley County Hospital in 1960 by concerned Los Angeles County physicians. These physicians sought to develop an organization that could augment services provided by the hospital to benefit underserved and uninsured populations in Los Angeles County. Our mission is to improve the health status and well being of underserved segments of the population of Los Angeles County through the direct provision or coordination of healthcare, health education services, and research.

You can support JWCH Institute by attending:
